

Aruba Jaycees gather at the Aruba Resort Spa and Casino for their 12th Annual Fundraiser

An elegant black tie affair organized by the Aruba Junior Chamber of Commerce was conducted in the Palm Beach Ballroom of the Aruba Resort Spa and Casino on Saturday evening, July 1. Ladies looked beautiful in their sequined gowns, and the gentlemen, similarly garbed in their most elegant finery made for handsome couples as they enjoyed an evening of fine dining and dancing to the Robert Jeandor and his Solo Band and the Zodiac Band.

Darice Solognier, Project Leader revealed that this year's beneficiaries of the funds raised will be Famia Planea (Family Planning) with headquarters in San Nicolas. Darice and the other members of the organizing committee for the event, Jacqueline Morel, Sharine Geerman, Lizmarie Flanegin, Dave Martinez, Indera Abath and Jylian Bislick also expressed gratitude to the sponsors of the evening. These include Digicel mobile communications, Fun Miles shopping program, Animagic and Victoria Bottling.
